CAMP DIRECTORS

TERRY JUSTICE, the Kentucky High School Lacrosse Coach of the Year at Lexington Catholic in 2004 and 2005, is the new coach of Transylvania University's Division III lacrosse program. Previous to his hire, he accumulated a 74-33 record. Justice guided the Knights to second place finishes in the KHSAA State Tournament in both the 2006 and 2008 seasons. In addition to his work at Lexington Catholic, Justice also helped form the first men's lacrosse team at the University of Kentucky as a player (1979-83), and a coach (1984-93).

LOGAN OTTO is currently head coach of Scott County High School Boys first ever lacrosse program. Previous to his hire at Scott County, Otto led The Lexington School to a regional championship and ended the season as runners up with a 9-2 record. Otto also cofounded the Lexington Legomen Elite with Coach Ben Schaefer. As a player Otto was a captain for Lexington Catholic High Schools 2006 State Championship Runner-up team. He still currently holds records in career points, assists and goals at his alma mater. He was a four time 1st team all-state attack selection, Lexington's first All-American selection and Kentucky's lone representative in the 2006 National Senior Showcase.

BEN SCHAEFER earned two All-State selections at Tates Creek High School and was selected as a High School All-American his senior year as a defenseman. Schaefer went on to play at Division III Birmingham-Southern College, earning two First-Team All-Conference Selections. Ben then went on to play for Division I Jacksonville University and remains the first and only Division I prospect to come out of Lexington.

Future Champs Lacrosse Camp

OUR PHILOSOPHY

Future Champs Lacrosse Camp is designed to provide the essential tools of the game of lacrosse to players of all ages from the Central Kentucky area.

Stick work, shooting, defensive tactics, and skill work at each position will be taught by a coaching staff comprised of Lexington's top players and coaches. By sharing their knowledge for the game and collegiate experience, you can bet campers of every age level will receive the means necessary to take their game to the next level.

At Future Champs, we are all about creating better players and sparking growth in the Lexington Lacrosse community.
